

Explore the North Carolina Aquarium at Fort Fisher!
Mark each box as you discover the image or animal shown!

Horseshoe Crab  They have blue blood and ten eyes	American Alligator  Live in freshwater	Humpback Whale  Grow to 60 feet (size of a school bus)
Shark  Replace teeth constantly and can go through 30,000 in their lifetime	Moon Jelly  Jellies have no heart, brain, or eyes	Tree Frog  Frogs breathe through their skin
Sea Turtle  There are 7 species in the entire world	Moray Eel  Are nocturnal and hide during the day	Stingray  Can regrow their barbs/stingers

Anemone  Closely related to jellies	Box Turtle  Can live to be 100 years old	Clownfish  Immune to the sting of the sea anemone
Seahorse  The males carry the babies	Sea Star  Can regenerate arms if they lose one	Catfish  Have whisker-like barbels to find food
Fiddler Crab  Males are the ones with the big claw	Puffer Fish  Only puff up when they are stressed	Spadefish Logo  Spadefish are common off our coast